

Healthcare:

-

Health Management Information System

-

Telemedicine

-

Cost-effective Gadgets and Diagnostic Instruments

-

Awareness Campaign through Multimedia

-

Preventive Self-check systems

-

Insurance Monitoring/ Processing Systems

-

Inventory Management/ Recording Systems

Media Lab Asia has set up a Core Group on ICT for Primary Healthcare to study the existing scenario and identify areas and opportunities for addressing the issues of Primary Healthcare using ICTs. To read/download excerpts of the report of the Core Group click here

Education:

-

Indian Language tools

-

Tutorials

-

Delivery Systems for distance learning through Web, Satellite, TV/Radio etc.

-

Establishment of Medialab Centres in Institutions for student projects

Empowerment of Disabled:

-

Portal for service and care available for disabled people.

-

Deployment of Computer based Systems for Students and training for teachers.

-

Computer based gadgets to aid the disables.

-

Repository of text and Reference Books (in print and audio)

-

Indian Language Tools

-

Cost-effective gadgets to overcome the disability

-

Embedded Systems for miniaturisation of products being developed.

-

Development of software

-

To make portals disabled–friendly

Village Livelihood Generation:

-

CAD based designs

-

Computer education

-

Micro finance Management Systems

-

Portals to showcase rural economy, products. Arts, handicrafts etc.

-

Geographical Information Systems

-

Industrial Microwave and RF based equipment

-

Social and Economic Surveys

-

Technology Awareness Campaign

-

Portals to deal with Agriculture, Animal Husbandry and Pisciculture related issues etc.

The list is an indicative one.

New Research Area

Last Updated Wednesday, 17 March 2010 09:28

Response on the other similar projects may also be sent.